MINORITY GROUP RESEARCH IN ONTARIO

Selected Bibliography of Graduate Research carried out at the University of Toronto in the areas of human rights and minority groups in Ontario.

Prepared by the Special Projects, Education and Research Division of The Ontario Human Rights Commission

This bibliography, covering theses completed to the end of 1968, was prepared by the Commission to indicate a little known source of information that has heretofore not been utilized as effectively as it could have been. The Commission plans to develop similar bibliographies of research undertaken at other Ontario universities in the near future. Other organizations at work in this field in other parts of the country may wish to explore this potentially fertile area in their own region. The Commission welcomes any comments regarding this project.
